

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LUIS TRUJILLO-MENDEZ,

Defendant.

No. CR03-4112-MWB

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION CONCERNING PLEA OF GUILTY

On March 25, 2004, the above-named Defendant, by consent, appeared before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11, and entered a plea of guilty to Count One of the Indictment. After cautioning and examining the Defendant under oath concerning each of the subjects mentioned in Fed. R. Crim. P. 11, the court determined that the guilty plea was knowledgeable and voluntary, and the offense charged is supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of such offense. The court therefore RECOMMENDS that the plea of guilty be accepted and the Defendant be adjudged guilty and have sentence imposed accordingly.

At the commencement of the Fed. R. Crim. P. 11 proceeding, the Defendant was placed under oath and advised that if he answered any questions falsely, he could be prosecuted for perjury or for making a false statement. The Defendant also was advised that in any prosecution for perjury or false statement, the Government could use against the Defendant any statement he gives under oath.

The court then asked a number of questions to ensure the Defendant's mental capacity to enter a plea. The Defendant stated his full name, his age, and the extent of his schooling. The court inquired into the Defendant's history of mental illness and addiction to narcotic drugs. The court further inquired into whether the Defendant was under the influence of any drug, medication or alcoholic beverage at the time of the plea. From this inquiry, the court determined that the Defendant was not suffering from any mental disability that would impair his ability to make a knowing, intelligent and voluntary plea of guilty to the charges.

The Defendant acknowledged that he had received a copy of the Indictment, and he had fully discussed these charges with his attorney.

The court determined that there was no plea agreement.

The Defendant was advised that any sentencing recommendation by the Government, or any agreement not to oppose a particular sentence, would not be binding on the court, and the Defendant would have no right to withdraw his plea if such a recommendation or request were not accepted by the court. The Defendant was advised also that after his plea was accepted, he would have no right to withdraw the plea at a later date, even if the sentence imposed or the United States Sentencing Guidelines were applied other than the Defendant or Defendant's counsel anticipated.

The court then summarized the charge against the Defendant, and listed the elements of the crime. The court determined that the Defendant understood each and every element of the crime, ascertained that the Defendant's counsel had explained each and every element of the crime fully to the Defendant, and the Defendant's counsel confirmed that the Defendant understood each and every element of the crime charged.

The court then elicited a full and complete factual basis for all elements of the crime charged in Count One of the Indictment.

The court advised the Defendant of the consequences of his plea, including the maximum fine and the maximum term of imprisonment.

With respect to Count One, the Defendant was advised that the maximum fine is $250,000; the maximum term of imprisonment is 20 years; and the maximum period of supervised release is three years.

The Defendant also was advised that the court is obligated to impose a special assessment of $100.00, which the Defendant must pay. The Defendant also was advised of the collateral consequences of a plea of guilty. The Defendant acknowledged that he understood all of the above consequences.

The court then explained supervised release to the Defendant, and advised the Defendant that a term of supervised release would be imposed in addition to the sentence of imprisonment. The Defendant was advised that among other conditions of supervised release, he could not commit another federal, state or local crime while on supervised release, and he could not possess illegal controlled substances while on supervised release. The Defendant was advised that the Sentencing Guidelines impose additional standard conditions of supervised release, and the court could impose additional special conditions. The Defendant was advised that if he were found to have violated a condition of supervised release, then his term of supervised release could be revoked and he could be required to serve in prison all or part of the term of supervised release without credit for time previously served on supervised release.

The court also explained to the Defendant that he would be sentenced under the United States Sentencing Guidelines. He was told that the U.S. District Judge would determine the appropriate sentence under the Guidelines. The Defendant confirmed that he had discussed with his attorney how the Guidelines might apply in his case. The Defendant also confirmed that he understood the court would not be able to determine the appropriate Guideline sentence until the preparation of a presentence report, which the parties would have the opportunity to challenge. The Defendant acknowledged that he understood the sentence imposed might be different from what his attorney had estimated. The Defendant also was advised that after it had been determined how the Guidelines would apply in his case, the sentencing judge would have the authority in some circumstances to impose a sentence that would be more severe or less severe than called for by the Guidelines. The Defendant also was advised that under some circumstances, the Defendant or the Government might have the right to appeal the sentence.

The Defendant was advised that parole has been abolished.

Both attorneys were asked about preliminary calculations they had made as to the Guideline sentence. The court then informed the Defendant that the U.S. District Judge would not be bound by preliminary calculations of the Guideline sentence, and the U.S. District Judge has the responsibility for determining the actual Guideline sentence.

The Defendant indicated that he had conferred fully with counsel and he was fully satisfied with his counsel. The Defendant's attorney indicated that the attorney had had full access to the Government's discovery materials, and they supported a factual basis for the plea.

The Defendant then was advised fully of his right to plead not guilty, or having already entered a not guilty plea to persist in such plea, and to have a jury trial, including:

1. The right to assistance of counsel at every stage of the pretrial and trial proceedings;
2. The right to a speedy, public trial;
3. The right to have his case tried by a jury selected from a cross-section of the community;
4. That he would be presumed innocent at each stage of the proceedings, and would be found not guilty unless the Government could prove each and every element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt;

5. That the Government could call witnesses into court, but the Defendant's attorney would have the right to confront and cross-examine these witnesses;
6. That the Defendant would have the right to see and hear all witnesses presented at trial;
7. That the Defendant would have the right to subpoena defense witnesses to testify at the trial, and if he could not afford to pay the mileage and other fees to require the attendance of these witnesses, then the Government would be required to pay those costs;
8. That the Defendant would have the privilege against self incrimination; i.e., he could choose to testify at trial, but he need not do so, and if he chose not to testify, then the court would, if the Defendant requested, instruct the jury that the Defendant had a constitutional right not to testify;
9. That any verdict by the jury would have to be unanimous;
10. That he would have the right to appeal, and if he could not afford an attorney for the appeal, then the Government would pay the costs of an attorney to prepare the appeal.

The Defendant also was advised of the rights he would waive by entering a plea of guilty. The Defendant was told there would be no trial, he would waive all the trial rights just described, and he would be adjudged guilty without any further proceedings except for sentencing.

The Defendant then confirmed that his decision to plead guilty was voluntary and was not the result of any promises other than plea agreement promises; no one had promised him what the sentence would be; and his decision to plead guilty was not the result of any threats, force, or anyone pressuring him to plead guilty.

The Defendant then confirmed that he still wished to plead guilty, and pleaded guilty to Count One of the Indictment.

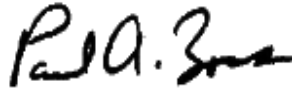

The court finds the following with respect to the Defendant's guilty plea:

1. The guilty plea is voluntary, knowing, not the result of force, threats or promises, and the Defendant is fully competent.
2. The Defendant is aware of the maximum punishment.
3. The Defendant knows his jury rights.
4. The Defendant has voluntarily waived his jury rights.
5. There is a factual basis for the plea.
6. The Defendant is, in fact, guilty of the crime to which he is pleading guilty.

The Defendant has executed a Consent to the Court's Inspection of Presentence Report Prior to Guilty Plea. The Defendant was advised that a written presentence investigation report would be prepared to assist the court in sentencing. The Defendant was asked to provide the information requested by the U.S. Probation Office to prepare the presentence investigation report. The Defendant was told that he and his counsel would have an opportunity to read the presentence report before the sentencing hearing, and he and his counsel would be afforded the opportunity to be heard at the sentencing hearing.

The Defendant was advised that the failure to file written objections to this Report and Recommendation within 10 days of the date of its service would bar him from attacking this court's Report and Recommendation, which recommends that the assigned United States District Judge accept the Defendant's plea of guilty. A copy of this Report and Recommendation was served on the Defendant and his attorney at the conclusion of the proceeding.

DONE AND ENTERED at Sioux City, Iowa, this 25th day of March, 2004.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Paul A. Zoss".

PAUL A. ZOSS
MAGISTRATE JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT